We, the unwilling,
led by the unknowing,
are doing the impossible
for the ungrateful.

We have done so much,
for so long,
with so little,
we are now qualified
to do anything
with nothing.

One source says that the above was inscribed on a latrine in Vietnam during the Vietnam War. Another source says that it was the "unofficial motto" of the U.S. Marine Corps during the Vietnam War. A third source attributes it to Mother Theresa.
